

Information Circular IC06-089

Date: July 19, 2006
To: CBOE Staff & Members
From: Office of the Chairman
Re: Go Go White Sox

Grinder Rule #1: When a World Champion is in the house, you must celebrate.

We are pleased to announce that Jerry Reinsdorf, the chairman of the World Champion Chicago White Sox, will be CBOE's guest of honor for a special bell ringing ceremony this Friday, July 21st.

Friday will not be a "jeans day," but you are encouraged to dress in White Sox caps and apparel. Additionally, as schedules permit, staff is invited to the trading floor to participate in the special bell ringing ceremony, which will begin at approximately 8:20 a.m.

Of course, a championship party wouldn't be complete without a trophy, so the World Series trophy will be on display in the CBOE lobby from 8:00 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. on Friday. Cameras are permitted.

We hope all of you will join us on this festive day as we salute the Chicago White Sox and celebrate Chicago's World Series Championship one more time!