BOARD OF DIRECTORS QUALIFICATION CRITERIA (CBOE Constitution Section 6.1)

The Board of Directors consists of 23 directors – 22 directors who are elected by the membership of the Exchange (as described below) and the Chairman of the Board, who is a member of the Board by virtue of his office.

2	At-Large Directors	A member who functions as a member in any recognized capacity either individually or on behalf of a member organization.
4	Floor Directors	A member who directly or indirectly owns and controls a membership and is primarily engaged in business on the floor of the Exchange in the capacity of a member.
1	Lessor Director	A person who directly or indirectly owns and controls a membership with respect to which s/he acts solely as lessor and who is not actively engaged in business as a "broker-dealer" or as a "person associated with a broker-dealer" as those terms are defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
4	Off-Floor Directors	An executive officer of a member organization that primarily conducts a non-member public customer business and who is not individually engaged in business on the Exchange floor.
		The ordinary place of business of at least one of the two off-floor directors in each Class shall be a location more than 80 miles from the Exchange's trading floor.
11	Public Directors	A non-member who is not a broker-dealer or person affiliated with a broker-dealer.

For purposes of Section 6.1:

A person is considered to directly own and control a membership only if the person individually and directly owns of record and beneficially all right, title and interest in the membership.

A person is considered to indirectly own and control a membership only if the person: (A) has the sole and exclusive right to vote the membership and control its sale, and (B) is in possession of and subject to all of the risks and rewards of a direct owner of at least a fifty percent (50%) interest in a membership, either through ownership of an equity interest in a member organization or of a beneficial interest in a trust, which in either case is the owner of one or more memberships as permitted under the Rules.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE QUALIFICATION CRITERIA (CBOE Constitution Section 4.1)

NO	NOMINATING COMMITTEE QUALIFICATION CRITERIA (CBOE Constitution Section 4.1)
The	The Nominating Committee consists of 10 elected members, as described below:
2	Firm Members	An officer of a member organization that primarily conducts a non-member public customer business.
4	Floor Members	A member who is primarily engaged in business on the floor of the Exchange in the capacity of a member.
2	Lessor Members	A person who directly or indirectly owns and controls (as defined in Section 6.1) one or more memberships in respect of which s/he acts solely as lessor.
		At least one of the lessor members may not be actively engaged in business as a "broker-dealer" or as a "person associated with a broker-dealer" as those terms are defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
		For the 2006 annual election: Since the lessor member position that is not up for election is currently held by a person who is not a broker-dealer or a person associated with a broker-dealer, the open lessor member position may be filled by a person that directly or indirectly owns and controls one or more memberships in respect of which s/he acts solely as lessor and the person may or may not be actively engaged in business as a broker-dealer or as a person associated with a broker-dealer.
2	Public Members	Representative of the public.
