RE: New RAES Series Guidelines for OEX

Effective Monday, October 23, 2000, RAES-eligible series in OEX will be expanded to include all series that closed the previous evening with a premium of $20 or less in all expiration months. Even if a series trades over $20 during the trading day, it will continue to be RAES-eligible during that trading day. The RAES volume limit for all eligible OEX series will remain at 20 contracts.

If you have any questions, please contact the RAES Supervisors at x4340, or the CBOE Help Desk at x7100 or any member of the Index Floor Procedure Committee.
