Updates Cboe Options Regulatory Circular RG17-168

Cboe Exchange, Inc. (Cboe Options or Exchange) is delaying the availability of a process that will determine, on a series-by-series basis, whether to disseminate Exchange-generated end-of-day two-sided indicative quotes in non-expiring series of SPX options (SPX and SPXW). The process was to be made available for application (as determined by the Exchange on a series-by-series basis) to non-expiring series of SPX options (SPX and SPXW) on November 27, 2017. The Exchange is delaying the availability of this process and will announce the availability of this process in a subsequent circular.
